

A.F. Timber Co Ltd, is pleased to offer the Kyle Levy - Pride in Logging Bursary, an annual bursary of $1,500 to a student entering the field of Logging or a full time Forestry or Trade* program at a Canadian College, Technical Institute or University.

Eligibility criteria:

- Student must be entering the field of Logging, or enrolled in, a full time Forestry or Trade* program this upcoming fall.
- Student must plan to work within Logging, Forestry or a Trade*
- Student must be from the Kootenay Region of BC.

How to apply:

Please send the following information, in digital format, to the following;

Erin Fitchett

Attn: Kyle Levy - Pride in Logging Bursary

Erin@aftimber.com

Include in the submission:

1. This completed application form
2. Official transcripts (most recent available)
3. At least two personal or professional references
4. Hand written letter outlining your career goals and why you should be considered for scholarship funding.

Applicants will be assessed on academic standing, financial need and written summary.

Preference will be given to students entering the field of Logging to pay for training and certificates or students enrolled in a first year Forestry or Trade* program, although all students are encouraged to apply.

Bursary will cover expenses associated with certificates or equipment needed to enter the field directly to vendor or be paid out to the institute in which student is enrolled in.

* Trades program defined as a British Columbia School offering Heavy Duty Mechanics, Professional Truck Driving, Heavy Duty Machine Operators Course, Welding Course or similar training program that leads to employment within the logging industry.
